OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

AO 472 (Rev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial

During argument at the detention hearing, Defendant's counsel waived any argument that he was entitled to release on conditions because he has an active warrant for his arrest based on a motion to revoke his probation. In addition, the Defendant is homeless and has substance abuse issues. There are no conditions this Court can set that would reasonably address the risk of non-appearance in this case.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
